

Attract Love Sigil

by Inelia Benz

Instructions on the flip side

To attract, hold and grow LOVE in your life, within your present, compatible, romantic relationship as well as attracting a new one if you are not in a relationship right now. Place this sigil where you can see it every day, as well as under your pillow.

If you are familiar with the Feng Shui system, place the sigil in your Relationship Corner.

You can draw the sigil on a piece of paper, on a rock, or any other type of material, or print the one attached.

You can fill a glass with water, place it on top of a printed or drawn version of this sigil, leave it there overnight and drink the water first thing in the morning.

Print or draw the sigil and every now and then, during the week, hold the sigil in your hands, take three big breaths and imagine what it is like to share your life within the most beautiful and fulfilling relationship.

Voilà!
